

VC BSMRAAU Meets Chairman CAAB

August 11, 2021, Wednesday

The newly appointed Vice Chancellor, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman Aviation & Aerospace University (VC, BSMRAAU), Air Vice Marshal Muhammad Nazrul Islam, BSP, nswc, afwc, psc visited the office of Civil Aviation Authority of Bangladesh (CAAB) to meet and greet the Chairman of CAAB, Air Vice Marshal M Mafidur Rahman, BBP, BSP, BUP, ndu, afwc, psc on August 11, 2021. The two institutions share a common goal of advancing the aviation and aerospace sector of Bangladesh and previously signed an MoU to collaborate.

As the first-ever specialized public university of aviation and aerospace studies in Bangladesh, BSMRAAU continues to enjoy an excellent level of cooperation with CAAB. Several aviation experts from CAAB are rendering their valuable service as adjunct faculty in BSMRAAU. CAAB has also extended their lab facilities for BSMRAAU students. The VC expressed his hope that the BSMRAAU graduates will be a great source to recruit qualified human resources for CAAB in particular and the aviation and aerospace sector of Bangladesh in general.

The CAAB Chairman lauded the activities and achievements of BSMRAAU in such a short period. Expressing his trust and confidence in BSMRAAU, the chairman appreciated the University's efforts to conduct regular online classes and examinations, braving COVID-19 challenges. Lastly, the Chairman thanked the VC for the visit to CAAB headquarters and assured to continue providing wholehearted support to BSMRAAU in areas of mutual interest to facilitate fostering sustainable growth in the aviation and aerospace sector of Bangladesh.
